

Rosemarie Maggart

December 4, 1931 - April 11, 2026

Rosemarie Maggart, 94, of Odessa, Texas, passed away peacefully at her home on April 11, 2026.

Rosemarie was born on December 4, 1931, in Germany to Alfred and Elisabeth Anna (Assmann) Ringmann. She later married Thomas Henry Maggart.

Rosemarie was a woman of remarkable strength and resilience-someone who never gave up and always found a way to bounce back, even when life was not easy. She was fiercely independent, determined, and carried herself with elegance, always well-dressed and poised. Known for her firm handshake, she made lasting impressions on everyone she met.

She was kind-hearted and had a gift for making others feel loved and welcome. Rosemarie was a wonderful entertainer, often hosting tea parties and gatherings filled with warmth and joy. She was also an excellent cook, remembered especially for her delicious cookies. She took great pride in her home and yard, keeping them pristine, and she had a special knack for finding a good bargain.

Above all, Rosemarie deeply loved her family, especially her daughter, whom she cherished fiercely. She was truly one of a kind.

She is survived by her daughter, Pippi Espinoza (Andy); grandchildren Tina Jordan and Christopher Espinoza (Shannon); great-grandchildren Drake Burnett, Demi Burnett, Gabriel Espinoza, Galen Espinoza, Dalton Espinoza, and Avery Espinoza; and five siblings, Honey Paoni, Lilo Lentz, Annemarie Weiss, Bruno Ringmann, and Dieter Ringmann.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Alfred and Elisabeth Anna (Assmann) Ringmann, and her grandson, Danny Ray Little Jr.

A Celebration of Life will be held on May 16, 2026, at Crossroads, 10 AM, with Pastor Griffith Jones officiating.
