

Rosemarie Maggart

December 4, 1931 - April 11, 2026

Rosemarie Maggart, 94, of Odessa, Texas, passed away peacefully at her home on April 11, 2026.

Rosemarie was born on December 4, 1931, in Germany to Alfred and Elisabeth Anna (Assmann) Ringmann. She later married Thomas Henry Maggart.

Rosemarie was a woman of remarkable strength and resilience-someone who never gave up and always found a way to bounce back, even when life was not easy. She was fiercely independent, determined, and carried herself with elegance, always well-dressed and poised. Known for her firm handshake, she made lasting impressions on everyone she met.

She was kind-hearted and had a gift for making others feel loved and welcome. Rosemarie was a wonderful entertainer, often hosting tea parties and gatherings filled with warmth and joy. She was also an excellent cook, remembered especially for her delicious cookies. She took great pride in her home and yard, keeping them pristine, and she had a special knack for finding a good bargain.

Above all, Rosemarie deeply loved her family, especially her daughter, whom she cherished fiercely. She was truly one of a kind.

She is survived by her daughter, Pippi Espinoza (Andy); grandchildren Tina Jordan and Christopher Espinoza (Shannon); great-grandchildren Drake Burnett, Demi Burnett, Gabriel Espinoza, Galen Espinoza, Dalton Espinoza, and Avery Espinoza; and five siblings, Honey Paoni, Lilo Lentz, Annemarie Weiss, Bruno Ringmann, and Dieter Ringmann.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Alfred and Elisabeth Anna (Assmann) Ringmann, and her grandson, Danny Ray Little Jr.

A Celebration of Life will be held on May 16, 2026, at Crossroads, 10 AM, with Pastor Griffith Jones officiating.

“GiGi was such a special person to me. she passed down to me her love of cute things and trinkets. growing up i always loved going to gigi’s house for butter noodles and sherbert. and she always let me leave with a little stuffed animal from her collection. the most important thing i learned from gigi was that you don’t need a man around to be happy. i never saw her with a man, but i always saw a woman surrounded by things that made her happy. i will miss her saying “tree” instead of three. i will miss her giving me lovie-pie. i am so honored to be part of her lineage.

“I loved her accent. She was a beautiful lady. We had our small group meetings at Pippi’s and Andy and Rosemarie would be there. We all called her Granny. Rosemarie was so sweet, kind and funny. She had a great relationship with her daughter and her grandchild Tina. We enjoyed sharing our food with her that we brought. She always loved that. She will be missed. Praying for the family during this time.

“ I miss the sound off your voice. I miss you knocking on the door every morning when I just got in the shower because you needed to come in the bathroom. I listen to this video over and over and over since you’ve been gone. Warms my heart. I love you granny.
