

Sarah Joan Hines

November 29, 1939 - January 29, 2024

Sarah Joan Hines, 84, of Midland, TX passed away on January 29, 2024 at her home in Midland, Texas.

Sarah was born on November 29, 1939 to Walter and Francis Inez Parker in Henderson County, Athens, Texas.

She is survived by three daughters, Cynthia Mearing, Jennifer JoAnn Radloff (Danny), and Christine Anderson (Bill); ten grandchildren, Robert, Missy, Shelley, Sara, Tristan, Robert, Hannah, Addy, Liam, and Parker; six great-grandchildren; and one brother, Kenneth Parker.

She is preceded in death by her husband Thomas Karl Hines; her parents, Walter Thomas and Francis Inez Parker; and four siblings, Frank Parker, James Parker, Jerry Parker, and Betty Moreland.

Now here's the rest of the story... She believed in cooking food until it was burnt. And then some. She was wonderfully smart and funny. And a quick draw with the middle finger, if you know what I mean. Always one for chances, whether it be lottery tickets, sweepstakes, or casinos, she lived the best she could with the hand she was dealt. She would routinely "write" you out of the will, depending on her mood or if you forgot to bring her favorite fast food.

She required good ethics and acceptable manners but would cheat at games of cutthroat gin rummy. Her loves included video games, coffee, and cigarettes. But most of all, men in uniform, as she insisted on calling 911 two days in a row so the firemen would come and surround her adoringly.

Towards the end of her adventure in life, she had health issues along with more than the usual forgetfulness, as evidenced in her insistence that Danny was always right and Jennifer was wrong, but Christine was still the favorite. But she loved her kids, her grandkids, her family, and her friends. And money! She will be missed by all. Especially Publishers Clearing House. And she never wanted to be that sweet, old lady. She wanted to be remembered as the "what is that old lady up to now?" and "what the hell did she just say?"

A Celebration of Life will be held on Sunday, February 4, 2024 at 2:00 PM at 6010 Poppy Dr. in Midland.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

FEB 4. 2:00 PM (CT)

Family Home
6010 Poppy Dr.
Midland, TX

Tribute Wall

AD

“ 3 files added to the tribute wall

Addy - February 01, 2024 at 06:10 PM