“ Dear Tressa, Mike, and Melissa, I am so sad to know of your Mother's death. I have grieved with you over these past months as it seemed as if nothing more could be done. Please be comforted in knowing that first God loves you and will be present throughout the many days ahead as you grieve and miss her so badly; and that you have many friends who love you - and adored your Mother and the many things she did and was for others. I love each of you and your families. Please know I am available to help in any way that I can. I have prayed - and will continue to lift each of you up for comfort and peace of heart that only Jesus can provide. Much love, Brenda (Richardson) Guill

“ My deepest condolences to all the LeMay/Hopper family in the passing of my classmate, high school friend, and fellow Rebelette, Sheila. May the laughter and memories shared over the years bring comfort and warmth to those whom grieve with her passing. As a twice cancer survivor, I know every step of her battle with cancer... the cruelest and most insidious of diseases. My heartbreaks for her knowing what she endured. May a permanent cure be quickly on the horizon for all, so that the untimely deaths of loved ones taken too early in life will become a thing of the past. She is free now. Her family and the love she held for Don, her children, and all her grandchildren was everything to her. She was a fabulous and accomplished cook. She will be missed by many. May her reunion with Don be one of great joy. Godspeed, Sheila... 'on on ye Rebels'.

“ Sheila was one of my Mom's cousins that was younger than I was. Therefore, she was more like a my cousin than my Mom's. Just always wished we had lived closer so that we could have visited more. So, sorry for her passing.
