

Sherrie Diane Tehas

January 28, 1962 - January 9, 2026

Sherrie Diane Tehas, age 63, of Midland, Texas, passed away on January 9, 2026, at Midland Memorial Hospital.

Born on January 28, 1962, in Odessa, Texas, Sherrie was the beloved daughter of the late Nathaniel William Davis and Carol Jeanette (Hammond) Berry. In her younger years, Sherrie dedicated herself to the care of others as a Licensed Vocational Nurse (LVN), a role that reflected her natural compassion and desire to help those in need.

Sherrie is survived by her children: son Jackie Vanover Jr.; daughters Summer Earnest and husband Wayne Earnest, and Crystal Kersey and husband Justin Kersey. She is also survived by her sister Captollia Renee Williams and her husband David Hall.

Her legacy lives on through her many grandchildren: Jordan and Tricia Earnest, Sean and Jamie Turner, Jarrett Earnest, Michael Earnest, Copelyn Huckabee, Shyanne Hughes, Steven Hughes, Austin Vanover, Dallas Vanover, Bradin McGhee, Autumn McGhee, and Willow Kersey. She was also blessed with great-grandchildren Dayton McGowan and Lysley Earnest, all of whom brought immense joy to her life.

Sherrie was a cherished aunt to her nephew Jon Williams and held close the love of extended family and friends. Her kindness, strength, and warm spirit touched the lives of all who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Carol Jeanette Berry and Nathaniel William Davis, and her brother, Danny Davis.

A loving sister, a devoted mother, and a proud grandmother and great-grandmother, Sherrie's memory will forever be held in the hearts of those who loved her.
