Her greatest joy was knowing that her family knew Jesus Christ.

“ I'm so grateful for the time I got to spend with Shirley because of her love of African violets. No matter the program or task that came up at the WTAVS meetings, she was there with a delightful curiosity, bright eyes and a willing spirit. I'm going to miss her, but what a privilege to have known her! My love and prayers go to her family at this sad time.
