“ *Memories of Shirley will go on forever. Her caring and loving spirit was evident in all she did, from volunteering, starting a dance club, road trips and gatherings in her garage!
And many more accomplishments!
She was a dear friend to all who crossed her path.*

“ *What a sweet, wonderful Christian example Shirley was. Her heart was always focused on helping others. I always said she was like a beautiful butterfly, always sharing beauty and making the world a happier place. I am so thankful that God let my path and hers cross. She will forever have sweet memories in my mind and heart.
Prayers for all the family and friends. May sweet memories comfort each one.*
