

Sophie Grace Ellison

October 5, 2023 - October 5, 2023

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved angel, Baby Sophie Grace Ellison, who was born into our lives on October 5, 2023. Though her time with us was brief, the impact of her presence will forever be etched in our hearts.

Sophie is survived by her grieving parents, Terry Ellison and Sabrina Cortinas, who held dreams of a bright future for their precious daughter. Her memory will be cherished by her sister, Molly Ellison, whose heart now carries the love that was meant to be shared with Sophie throughout a lifetime. Sophie is also survived by her loving grandparents, Gracie Hernandez, Richard Cortinas, and Stephanie Rumbaugh, as well as her great-grandmother, Jeanie Ray. The loss of this precious soul is also deeply felt by aunts Jennifer Ramos, Erika Watson, and Lindsey Rumbaugh, who had eagerly awaited the joy of welcoming Sophie into the family.

She has joined her maternal great grandparents in heaven's embrace. Baby Sophie's absence leaves a void that extends to her cousins Khloe Ramos, Jaylynn Watson, Melanie Watson, and Lucas Watson. Their lives, too, are touched by the sorrow of her departure.

Though Sophie's time on Earth was fleeting, the love she inspired will endure in the hearts of all who knew her. As we mourn the loss of this beautiful soul, let us remember the joy she brought into our lives, even if only for a short while.
