

Wesley Joe Morgan

November 11, 1979 - May 12, 2023

Wesley Joe Morgan was born on November 11th, 1979, in Odessa, Texas, to parents Bobby Dean Morgan and Debra Kay Franklin. On May 12th, 2023, he entered eternal rest.

Wesley was a hardworking man who began his career at Rainbow Plumbing at the age of 16. Through dedication and skill, he became an exceptional master plumber. In 2011, he established his own plumbing company, A to Z Pro Plumbing.

On April 17, 2013, he married the love of his life, Lacy Morgan. Together, they had three amazing children and welcomed their fourth child through adoption in 2019. Wesley took great pride in his children and spent his life working diligently to provide them with opportunities he never had. He was not only an amazing son, brother, husband, uncle, coach, and friend, but above all, he excelled in the role of a father.

Wesley enjoyed playing football, riding dirt bikes, cooking, and going on family vacations. He inherited his father and sister's culinary skills and was known for his talent in the kitchen.

He possessed a lively and adventurous spirit. He delighted in sharing stories about his mischievous encounters as a teenager, particularly his experiences with bullfighting (AKA trouble with a smile).

Wesley was known for his bravery, courage, humor, outgoing nature, and, most notably, his frankness. He fearlessly voiced his opinions, regardless of how they might be received. While his words were not always sugar-coated, he remained authentic and had an uncanny ability to forge friendships wherever he went. Though he often teased and playfully taunted others, he had a unique talent for bringing smiles and laughter to those around him.

As he grew older, his heart expanded, and his profound love for others became more evident. Many may not have realized just how deeply he cared. Wesley made a significant impact on numerous lives and served as a role model to many. His absence will be profoundly felt by countless families and friends.

Wesley is preceded in death by his father, Bobby Morgan; mother, Debra Morgan; sisters, Brandy Morgan and Sandy Morgan; and sister-in-law, LaTasha Sims.

He is survived by his wife, Lacy Morgan; one and only, cherished daughter, his princess, Malarie Morgan; sons, Ethan, Bryson, and Jaxon Morgan; nieces, Little Lacey Morgan, Emily Morgan, and her wife, Linda; as well as his great nieces, Olivia and Leilani Morgan. He is also survived by numerous other family members and lifelong friends.

May Wesley Joe Morgan rest in eternal peace, forever remembered and deeply missed.
