“ My beautiful friend Yalitz! You will be missed dearly. I met you back in 2013 when we just moved to Odessa and you showed me what a real friendship was. As I had just had my second baby with no family in town and you were there for me when I was afraid to be alone. You would come to my house every morning with breakfast or I would go to yours as you always had your door open for me and my family. You would give me breaks and hold my baby in your arms and that alone showed me what a beautiful person you were inside and out. We would go on Target runs and eat lunch together and you always let me stay at your house for as long as I needed. You would do my makeup and braid my hair and everyone that knows you, knows you were the best at doing both. We would take our girls to gymnastics together and we would sit and talk and laugh but the best part was that you were always happy and you always made me laugh. It was always good vibes with you never a dull moment. You showed me how to make green chicken enchiladas but I liked them better when you made them. You quickly made me feel like family and I will always cherish those wonderful memories of you. I love you and my you rest in peace. ❤️
