“ I remember when I first met my cousin Yared she was like four years old they brought her to my home state California I remember her pretty lil Shirley temple hair and her smile just lit up the room my sibilings and me were very welcoming to her accepted her like a sister. Just as I first seen her she continued to stay and be that same beautiful curly haired happy smiling soul no matter what she was going through her laughter would make everyone happy with a warm feeling inside she never changed and that's how I always want to remember her like that beautiful happy curly hair soul always generous of what ever she had the sweetest caregiving personality one of the top five best souls I ever met in my life . Rest in peace you are where you belong what you always were a true Angel 🙏❤️
